Call for Papers (2020)

“The Protection of the Child in International Law”

The editorial board invites authors to submit papers to be published in the 2nd issue of 2020

The Journal of International Law of Peace and Armed Conflict / Humanitäres Völkerrecht (JILPAC / HuV) specialises in the legal analysis surrounding armed conflicts. The JILPAC focuses on the contemporary challenges of international humanitarian law and related fields, including international human rights law and international criminal law as well as on practical challenges of humanitarian aid and peace missions. The JILPAC publishes papers, commentaries, case notes, book reviews, and conference reports on current events and future developments of the law and of humanitarian action in both English and German.

Against the backdrop of the 20th anniversary of the Optional Protocols to the Convention on the Rights of the Child on the involvement of children in armed conflict as well as on the sale of children, child prostitution and child pornography, we invite submissions focusing on the following topics:

- Involvement of children in armed conflict as child soldiers or through other acts supporting the armed conflict;
- Protection of children in armed conflict under international law;
- International legal protection of children
- Children’s rights from a regional, specifically from an Arabic point of view (deadline: 15 July 2020).

Articles not relating to the special focus of this issue are equally welcome. Contributions can be submitted in English or German. We further welcome conference reports, book reviews (upon request), and case notes. Instructions for contributors can be found on the website of the IFHV as well as on the website of the Berliner Wissenschafts-Verlag.

All articles are subject to a double-blind peer-review process by the editorial and advisory board.

We thank the Arab-German Young Academy of Sciences and Humanities (AGYA) for their support with this issue. The issue is guest-edited by Khalid Talahma and Pierre Thielbörger.
