

Journal of International Law of Peace and Armed Conflict (JILPAC)

Call for Papers (2020)

“Business and Human Rights”

The editorial board invites authors to submit papers to be published in the first issue of 2020

The Journal of International Law of Peace and Armed Conflict / Humanitäres Völkerrecht (JILPAC / HuV) specialises in the legal analysis surrounding armed conflicts. The JILPAC focuses on the contemporary challenges of international humanitarian law and related fields, including international human rights law and international criminal law as well as on practical challenges of humanitarian aid and peace missions. The JILPAC publishes papers, commentaries, case notes, book reviews, and conference reports on current events and future developments of the law and of humanitarian action in both English and German.

We invite submissions of articles focusing on the following topics:

- Business and Human Rights;
- Corporate responsibility for violations of international humanitarian law;
- Legal and voluntary regulation specifically within the food- or the clothing sector (deadline: 15 January 2020).

Articles not relating to the special focus of this issue are equally welcome. Contributions can be submitted in English or German. We further welcome conference reports, book reviews (upon request), and case notes. Instructions for contributors can be found on the website of the IFHV as well as on the website of the Berliner Wissenschafts-Verlag. All articles are subject to a double blind peer-review process by the editorial and advisory board.

For this issue, Prof. Dr. Pierre Thielbörger (Ruhr University Bochum) and Associate Prof. Dr. Khalid Ibrahim Talahma (Birzeit University) will serve as special editors. The issue is supported by the Arab German Young Academy (AGYA).
